CITY NEWS.

JOB PRINTING.—The Job Department in the Democratic Office is now ready for all kinds of printing. Bills, Circulars, Cards, Posters, &c., printed at the shortest possible notice, and at prices to suit the times.

WANTED.—To hire a negro man—farm hand—laborer at this office.

PEACE PROCESSION.—Wednesday, April 15. There was very little business in the Police Court this morning. Visitors were few. The dock was not as well filled as usual.

John Thompson, whose case was continued from Monday, and who was charged with stealing a watch from a man on the levee, was presented. The man failed to appear. He was released from the charge and presented as a suspected felon. He is a paroled rebel prisoner, and was sent to Col. Moore, the Provost Marshal. He said "he had a brother in the Federal army, and he didn't want to fight against him any more."

Ans Emerson was bailed out of the workhouse.

Col Price sued out a peace-warrant against Tilly and Lizzie Hounthorne and George Roberts. These parties still live in the same house, and "cut up smash." One half is afraid of the other. They were recommended to the Grand Jury.

Thus ended the business in the Police Court this morning.

ARREST OF EDWARD WILDER.—Our readers, doubtless, remember that Mr. Ed. Wilder, old citizen of this city, was released at Nashville on Monday and his bonds taken. He came to this city, and was arrested yesterday by order of Col. Mundy, in accordance with the recent order issued by General Burnside, that all sympathizers with the rebels shall be sent below the lines. We learn that the authorities intend rigidly enforcing this order.

Two or three of the forty thieves were arrested on Market street, above Second, Tuesday night. They stole three or four bolts of calico, and $4 in money from a dry goods house. These young rascals are nightly committing depredations of this kind in the city, and we hope the police will succeed in breaking up this band of young thieves.

Not so.—There was a rumor prevalent yesterday that the City Attorney, Mr. W. G. Ressor, was arrested Tuesday by the military authorities and put in the military prison. This is not so. He was in the Police Court yesterday morning, attending to his business as usual, and is not likely to be put in any prison. He is a Union man.

ROBBERY.—Lieut. Clark, of the Eleventh Kentucky cavalry, was robbed yesterday morning of about $5,000 in greenbacks, Tennessee and Southern money. It was in his coat, which was hanging in a recruiting office, on the corner of Floyd and Main streets. The thief is supposed to be a German from Indiana.

The owner of the one horse that was killed on Fourth street, a few days ago, has had a subscription taken up by a number of citizens, who have almost contributed enough money to purchase another horse for him. He is a cripple, and the loss of the horse was a serious one to him.

There is very often complaint made of the conduct of young men who congregate on the corner of Fourth and Green streets at midnight, whooping and shouting, much to the annoyance of the citizens in that vicinity. This is a nuisance that ought to be stopped by the police.

We learn that there are cases of small-pox existing among some negroes on Green street, near Brook. This is a nuisance, and may possibly prove an epidemic in the neighborhood. Can these cases not be removed to the posthouse, or to some hospital, by the city authorities?

Mason Jones, Esq., an Irish gentleman, who is famous as an actor and lecturer, has reached our city en route to Memphis. We understand that he is urgently solicited to deliver an address to our citizens if a suitable hall can be obtained.

The Nashville train came in on time last evening without meeting with any hindrance by guerrillas along the line. Everything was quiet so far as heard from at points along the route.

Captain James M. Thurman, late Quartermaster of the Twenty-second Kentucky regiment, has returned to his home in Covington, having resigned his position in the army on account of ill health.

The fire yesterday morning was caused by the partial burning of a shed, attached to Mr. Hatfield's cotton factory, on the corner of Thirteenth street and Portland avenue. Damage slight.

Dick Morgan, the notorious horse-thief, has been convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for four years. He arrived at Frankfort, from Covington, yesterday.

HIGH SCHOOL LECTURE.—Professor Hallman will deliver a lecture this evening in the Male High School building. Subject—Telegraph.

We learn that several persons have been knocked down and robbed in the lower part of the city during the past few nights by soldiers.

Quite a number of deserters and prisoners were brought down on the train from Lexington last evening. The train was crowded.

Jo. Short, the clever news agent on the Lexington Railroad, has our thanks for his attention to this office.

About one hundred sick and wounded soldiers arrived on the train from Nashville last evening.

There will be a meeting of both Boards of the City Council this evening.

OLD FOLKS.—This most popular troupe gave another of their "old-time" entertainments last evening to one of the most fashionable audiences the city could produce, and they fully appreciated "the songs of ye olden time," while they were more than pleased with the beautiful song of "Annie Laurie," which never escaped woman's lips with more sweetness and melody than it did from the lips of Miss Paige. "Coming Thro' the Rye" was divine in itself.

It does not often happen that a man who likes to hear pretty singing by a pretty girl can be suited as well as he can in Miss Emilie Paige. We go to hear singers, some for one, some for another, and others for no reason at all. We often find ourselves, after these concerts or entertainments, criticising first that, and then another, until we come to the conclusion there was really not much in it. Some singers have fine voices without due training; some have fair voices very much cultivated, and so ambitions of the cultivation that they keep the hearers annoyed and worried through the whole performance. Others, again, have neither so much voice nor cultivation, but pretty faces, fine appearance, and an air way of doing everything to captivate the audience.

We have rarely seen any one combining so beautifully so many of the requisite graces as Emilie Paige. Her voice enchanting her hearers, her cultivation is sufficient to do well what she undertakes, and her manner and beauty are both so bewitching that we are bound to exclaim, "how sweet and beautiful!" So exasperated does the audience become, (though there is much beautiful singing besides her, especially by her sister), that a feeling of disappointment is plainly visible when she so modestly assumes her seat.

We advise those who are fond of first-class vocal music, by all means not to miss this opportunity. We are sure those who put it off till the last night will be sorry they had not gone before, as they have missed an opportunity for so much pleasure. We suggest that a complimentary benefit be given Miss Emilie tomorrow night, and hope she will accede to the wishes of her many admirers.

Wood's THEATER.—The numerous admirers of Miss Shaw can have but two more opportunities after to-night of witnessing her beautiful impersonations as she positively closed her engagement on Saturday, the popular artistes, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Conway, appearing on the following Monday. To-night the fair Dora appears as "Carmille," one of her greatest delineations, and in which character it is said she excels every other actress who has attempted it. Mr. J. W. Abbott, from the Philadelphia theaters, who has the reputation of being a young actor of great excellence, makes his first appearance here, performing "Armand Duval"—the rest of the characters by the excellent stock company.

A full house may be reasonably looked for.

Sam Sharp's Musicians, who are to appear at Masonic Temple, have been doing a big business in Indianapolis. The Journal of that city April 1st, says:

Another big license crowded into Masonic Hall last evening to "laugh and grow fat" over the funny performances of Sharples' Minstrels. The instrumental music and chorus singing of this band is most excellent. The female and other dances are excellent. The comic sketches of the band, Master Arché are very cleverly sung, while Sam Sharples' comical scenes and the negro extravaganzas of the comedians of the company are admirable. These musical Corkonians will return again this evening, and to-morrow night they will conclude their performances here.

ANOTHER TRENT AFFAIR.—The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette says that it has been finally decided to release the British steamer Peterhoff, captured on a charge of attempting to run the blockade. It appears that she was in the British channel of the West Indies. Perhaps Seward has determined to release the Peterhoff even if not exactly compelled to do so under the laws of nations, and as a offset, threaten England with war if any more steamers are built for the rebels. It is time he was giving England a little plain talk.

ADAM ISAACS MENKEN.—It would almost be useless for us to urge any one to go and witness the extraordinary performances of this wonderful actress, or to even comment on her style of playing in the play of Mephisto, for the large audience that nightly crowd the theater is sufficient proof that she is a wonderful woman, and never fails to excite the admiration and applause of all who see her.

To-night Mephisto will be repeated and we advise all who are desirous of seeing her at J. M. Armstrong's, on Main, opposite the National.
